

Deck the Halls

Den

Designer Susan Bloom of Susan Bloom Interiors used the den's dark wood to showcase a pallet of rich reds. A grand fir, poinsettias and brass chandelier tied with red and gold wire ribbon splash holiday cheer. A walnut pie crust table sits cozily between tufted rollback arm chairs. A porcelain doll sits primly upon an antique Windsor chair. The Coe collection's amber-and-wooden pipe ashtray, leopard rug, tables, silver trays and tea service ground the room's traditional theme.
